REPORT

Date Sept. 10, 1931.

Subject (in full) "Execution of Warrants"

Made by and Forwarded by C.D.I. J.W. Prince.

Sir,

In reply to the queries by the D.C. Crime in respect of the execution of warrants No.2942-3, I beg to state that these warrants were issued at the instance of the Chinese Authorities and we had to rely on them for assistance in identifying the person mentioned on one of the warrants. I therefore applied through Mr. Loh Sih Kya, who was acting for Superintendent Tan Shao Liang, to get some one from the Soong Wu Military Headquarters to come and assist in the identification; and I was informed that Chinese Authorities were making further inquiries, and would send their man to us when inquiries were completed. I therefore locked the warrants up for safe keeping, as, so far as I could see, there was nothing on them to shew there was a fixed day for their return to Court. As I heard nothing further about this case for some days, I applied again to the Chinese Authorities, through Superintendent Tan Shao Liang, who had returned from leave, and he told me that they were sending their man over, but the person did not come till September 7, 1931, when, with the assistance of the Bubbling Well Detectives, one of the warrants was executed.

Detective Wong Ping, representative of the Chinese Authorities, gave evidence in Court which showed that they knew that the preprietor of the Dah Dong Printing Firm (大同印刷所) whom they wanted to arrest, was connected with the communists, and yet they took out a warrant to search for the Ming Sung Evening News (民聲晚報), which is deemed to be a reactionary, though not Communistic publication. Furthermore, he stated that they had to delay execution of the warrant, and keep the place under surveillance until an opportune time availed. Please

I beg to state that the memo in English which usually accompanies Warrants and Summonses generally gives details of the Charge, and shows the date the document is returnable to Court, but in this case it did not mention the latter, and as I do not usually show warrants of this nature to my Chinese staff, in order to avoid leakage of information prior to their execution, I did not know a date was fixed for their return to Court.

REPORT ON Disposal of Warrants.

Made by D.S.I. Cole Forwarded by Henry Robertson, C.D.I.

Sir,

I beg to report that Warrants when received in the Registry are dealt with as follows:-

I) Indexed on Special cards in the Crime Registry under: Name and address of accused, Charge, Date of Warrant, Number, Person to whom sent and date, Warrant initialled by Clerk.

2) Forwarded by the Registry to the Section or Division in accordance with endorsement made by either the Officer i/c Special Branch or Personal Assistant, Crime Branch.

3) Warrants wherein particulars as to address of accused is not given are indexed and kept in a locked cabinet in numerical order.

4) When a Warrnt, which has been passed to a Section for necessary action has not been executed it is forwarded to the Officer in Charge, Special Branch, and returned through the Registry to the Court accompanied by a copy of a Police report signed by the Officer i/c of the Section concerned.

The procedure described at No.4 does not apply to Warrants forwarded from Headquarters to Divisions. The Divisions concerned return Warrants to Court direct.

The system as explained is quite satisfactory providing it is strictly adhered to. In some cases, however, the Officer i/c Special Branch to whom all warrants forwarded to Headquarters are addressed personally, passes some of Charge: Offence against Public Order. Cont to Art 160 Sec 1 of the CCRC. For that they at 3.30 p.m. on 7th day of Sept. 1931 at the Dah Dong Printing Shop, No.612 Yu Yuen Road were engaged for the purpose of printing literature of a Revolutionary nature.

Proceedings

Mr.Kum appeared for the Police.

Mr.Kum:-At 3-30pm.7-9-31 the Police armed with a search warrant raided 612 Yu Yuen Rd.accompanied with a representative of the Dong Wu Military H/Q.for the arrest of one Nyien Sien. No person of that name could be located there but the Police arrested the accused & a large quantity of communist literature in various parts of the shop All the accused stated that the place(Dah Dong Printing Shop) was owned by a man named Sze Kaung Pah who went to Nanking 2 months ago, leaving in charge a man named Wong Nai Chong. The accused stated that he left the shop at 9am.7-9-31 for some place unknown. The warrant was issued on the 22-8-31 but the representative will tell the court why it has not been executed before now.

D.F.S.O'Neil:-Corroborated Mr.Kum.

Rep.Wong Ting:-Corroborated Mr.Kum & added that the leader was handed over to us,he named Dong Yi Dah told us that this printing shop was connected with the communist party so we applied to this court for a warrant to search same. We could not raid the place so soon after he was handed over so we watched & waited & yesterday we decided to raid the place. The letter(produced)we found on the premises proves there has been meetings held there by Russians. When we raided the place the 1st.accused was directing the printing of novels & we consider that he is a very important person so I ask the Court to hand the accused over to us & a despatch warrant will be sent later.

1st.accused:-I have been working at this place for 5 months. Wong Nai Ching told me that Sze Kaung Pah was the manager,but I do not know who is the master.

3. Raid on Printing Establishment - seizure of pro-communistic literature - 9 arrests

At 3.30 p.m. September 7, the Municipal Police, accompanied by representatives of the Soong Wu Military Headquarters, raided the Dah Dong (大同) Printing Shop, F.A. 612 Yu Yuen Road, O.O.L. on the authority of warrants issued by the Shanghai Special District Court at the request of the above authorities in respect of one Nyung Sien (任顯) on a charge of being in possession of reactionary literature and to seize certain reactionary publications entitled "The Ming Sung Evening News".

The man mentioned in the warrant was absent at the time of the visit and a search of the premises failed to produce any copies of the newspaper in question. However, as a result of the search, some 4,000 copies of pro-communistic books comprising 20 different kinds were seized and 9 persons found on the premises arrested.

Among the literature seized were recent copies of the International Press Correspondence and certain periodicals in German addressed to "Herrn C.S. Dang" and "D.D. Chang", F.A. 612 Yu Yuen Road. These names are believed to be aliases used by Deng Yen-tah (鄧演達), leader of the so-called Third Party and former Commander of the 3rd Red Army Corps, who was arrested by the Municipal Police on August 17 (Vide I.R. 18/8/31) and subsequently extradited to the Chinese Authorities.

In view of the foregoing, it would appear that this printing establishment was evidently the publication organ of the so-called Third Party whose membership ~~excludes~~ includes a large percentage of communistic elements.

The arrested persons will be brought before the Second Branch, Kiangsu High Court this morning on a charge of being in possession of reactionary literature and a remand applied for. Their names are as follows :-

Name of Accused		Nativity	Occupation

My name is Lieu Ping. I am 25 years of age, a native of Zang Zoh(常州) chow. I am employed as a printer at the Dah Dong Printing Establishment, FA 612 Yu Yuen Road, and I am living there.

I have been employed with the Dah Dong Printing Establishment for five months. I was introduced to the shop by a friend named Ss Siao Tsoong(施小忠), whose present whereabouts I do not know. My pay is $16. per mont Previous to this, I was employed at the Ts Ching Daung(集錦堂 Printing Establishment at the Great East Gate, City, for more than a year and also at the Nanyang Printing Shop(南洋), Small South Gate, City.

The proprietor of the Dah Dong Printing Establishment is named Ss Paung Teh(施方德), a native of Tsungming(崇明), about 37 years of age, and about 5' 6" in height. He used to reside in the shop, but when the Police came, he had left for Nantung on unknown business about two months ago.

I attended school at my native village and my knowledge of Chinese is poor. I cannot thoroughly understand the articles that I printed. I am not a member of any political party, and I do not know if my master is interested in politics. During the absence of my master Wong Hui Chong(王乃昌), Acting Accountant, takes charge of the shop. He left the shop in the morning and has not since returned.

I do not know for whom we print the literature seized by the Police. The work is done quite openly.

I came to Shan hai about three years ago, and worked as an apprentice in the Shanghai Printing Shop(上海), West Gate, City, for three years. About one month ago, I was introduced by Sung Yoong Siao(沈肇孝)to the Dah Doong Printing Establishment to work as a type-setter. I am receiving only $6. per month. I studied for 4 years in a small private school at my native place and I cannot read and write Chinese well.

I am not a member of any political party. I have never seen the master of the shop and I know nothing about him. I receive my orders from the accountant named Wong(王). He lives on the premises, but left the shop about 9 a.m. to-day and had not returned when the Police came. I have never handled any Communistic book and I do not know if there is any Communistic literature in the shop. All the printing in the shop is done quite openly.

The following is the statement of Zung Zeu Kong, aged 16 years native of Chi Tung, Haimen taken by me C.D.S. 10. at B'Well Stn. on the 7-9-31 and translated by Y.B. Pu.

states;

I have been educated in my native country for seven years. I am now living at 612 Yu Yuen Road, the Dah Dong Printing Establishment owned by Sz Faung Pah, where I am employed as a typesetter apprentice through the introduction of my fellow-country man named Sung Yui Sung in March this year. As I have only remained in the shop for about 10 days, I went to homeland owing to me being sick, and I arrived back to Shanghai only/ two weeks ago. I haven't started to work yet. I don't know what were the books printed in the shop. I had never seen my master since my return from sick leave.
